HAZELWOOD LEAVES

November 6, 2014

Greetings,

As we go through this time of transition, there are always regrets as well as expectations. There are friends with whom we used to share life, who are not so much in our lives these days. There are loved ones who have left us for many reasons. There are so many different responses to grief, and as anyone who has experienced it's knows, grief can surprise you with its intensity and it's timing (just when you least expect it). Hazelwood Christian Church has had some reasons to grieve this last year, and we continue to move towards God's comfort and peace, even though we know there are still many challenges ahead. We are thankful for those who continue to share the journey, and we look forward to where God is leading.

I'll see you on November 16th as I return from my daughter's, in Baltimore. We'll share Thanksgiving dinner and hold our Annual Meeting.

Grateful to be with you,
Diane
