HAZELWOOD LEAVES

August 4, 2011

The "Sing in the Sanctuary Choir" is coming to Hazelwood

This choir of forty-one, a community summer chorus, put together by Dr. Andrew Crow, choral director at Ball State and High St. Methodist Church, will perform on Sunday, August 7, at the 9 a.m. service.

Four of our choir members decided to join in for the five rehearsals and eight performances planned this summer. We are very pleased the director chose Hazelwood for one of the performances, as only two of the performances are in Muncie.

The choir will begin by processing down our center aisle, immediately following the prelude. They will sing from the front, then move to the balcony, to add music throughout the service.

Make sure you are seated early, so you won't miss the choir as they enter the Sanctuary.

Read The Bible In A Year Luncheon and Discussion will be held on Sunday, August 7, 12:30 p.m., in the Sulanke Fellowship House. Please bring a side or salad to share.

Discussion will cover the readings from the past four weeks.

Hazelwood has a Habitat for Humanity work day planned for Saturday, August 27. The time and location has not been set, but in the past, it's been 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Workers must be 16 years of age or older to participate.

There will be a sign-up sheet available after each worship service. Even if you can't work the whole day, you can still sign up. Just indicate you can only do a 1/2 day, either a.m. or p.m. See Marianna Gill if you have any questions.
