**Reflects the amount received UNDER Budget*

We pastors are often focused on running things around church, and we don't give ourselves room to experience what's happening. During Sunday morning worship, I'm usually thinking about what needs to happen next and what I need to do to make that thing happen. When that's my focus I don't have a lot of space in my heart to experience the good happening in our worship. I get caught up in what I have to do, and I often miss the beauty happening all around me. There are moments, though, where the power of what we're doing breaks through and my eyes are opened to what God is doing.

On Christmas Eve, a couple of years ago, I had a moment like that. We shared in the lighting of the candles, and we were singing Silent Night. I saw the light from my own candle, and the room was filled with the light from all our candles, and the light we shared was lit from the Christ Candle. I thought, "This light is enough." It doesn't matter how dark the world becomes, the light we have and share through Christ is enough. We talk ourselves into a sullen negativity, convincing ourselves the darkness is winning, but I saw on that Christmas Eve the light we know and live and share—the light we see in Christ—is enough.

So I hope you see that light this Christmas. Whether you've had a good year or a not-so-good year, whether you're looking forward to good things in the next year or if what 2018 may bring has you terrified, know what we celebrate at Christmas: Christ's light shines and overcomes the darkness, and that light is enough.

Grace & peace,
Jason Jones

P.S. Thank you so much for the generosity the church has shown in helping my wife and I bring a foster child into our home. We were overwhelmed with the gifts we received from family, friends, and the church that helped us welcome this little guy into our home. Thank you all!

CHRISTMAS BOX PROJECT

The Christmas Box Project was a great success again! This year, Hazelwood adopted 30 families, with 39 children among them, through the Salvation Army.

It takes a lot of volunteers and donations to help so many families: the Salvation Army screened and sent us the information for families who truly needed assistance this Christmas; Meijer donated a $500.00 gift card to help with the Secret Santa Shopping; Aldi helped us to order food for the families.

All of those groups were a big help, but the heroes are you, Hazelwood. Without the support you gave throughout the entire process, we would not have been able to adopt these families and provide them with this much-needed Christmas help. You volunteered your time to raise money, make phone calls, shop for toys, wrap presents, pack food, and deliver boxes. You donated ribbons, bows, wrapping paper, and special gifts for the children. And you gave financial support to help purchase the food and gifts for these families.

Special thanks to Kent, Stephanie, Ashlyn, & Jaxon Farra, who helped not only with bringing the food from Aldi to the church on both Thursday and Saturday (no small task!), but also helped to coordinate the packing of the non-perishable food on Thursday. They had a great group of hard-working volunteers to help them along the way: Dennis Holmes; Jay & Mary Ann Matchett; Carolyn McShurley; Stefanie & Logan Petty; Bill Ritchie; Bob & Sue Weller along with their grandchildren, Cameron, Reid, & Molly Webber; and Ann Wolfe.

On Saturday, the perishable food was packaged up, and everything was delivered by Shirley Bookout & her grandchildren, Haley & Austin Herr; Don & Cheryl Crose; Kent, Stephanie, Ashlyn, & Jaxon Farra; Daniel, Heather, & Emma Kruger; Jay Matchett; Yeno Matuka; Rev. James Petty; Jason, Bethany, Landon, & Maggie Ratts; Jim & Nancy Reece; and Bob & Sue Weller with their grandsons, Cameron & Reid Webber. This fine group not only delivered food and toys to these families, they also brought with them some much-needed Christmas hope and cheer.

With the loss of Marsh Supermarkets, the Christmas Box Project was a little different this year, and we weren't quite sure what to expect in working with Aldi for the first time. It turns out the amazing staff and low prices at Aldi, coupled with Meijer's very generous donation of a $500 gift card to apply to the toy purchases, allowed us to accomplish our task of bringing Christmas to all 30 of our families this year UNDER budget! This means that next year we will be able to plan on helping to provide some much-needed help to even more local families. What a great Christmas Blessing!

NOTES OF APPRECIATION

"Thank you for your kindness in sending me the lovely poinsettia. I shall enjoy it every day."

"Dear Hazelwood Family,

Thank you very much for the Christmas poinsettia. It brightens our room nicely, and it is such a thoughtful gift to receive this special season. Merry Christmas and Blessings to you all."

NEW YEAR'S EVE WORSHIP & BRUNCH!

What better way to welcome the New Year than to worship together on New Year's Eve! We will have our worship service in Cartwright Hall at 10 a.m. on December 31.

You are invited to bring your favorite brunch item to share, but you do not NEED to provide anything. Let us ring in the New Year and give thanks for the past year! God is good.

SNOW DAYS!

As beautiful as newly-fallen snow is, it can result in dangerous conditions if not diligently removed, which is a huge undertaking for our two dedicated grounds keepers! When snow falls on a Sunday morning, it is simply not within the power of two people (despite a pre-dawn start) to plow the parking lot, clear all of our many walkways and entrances of snow, and get salt down soon enough for it to have a chance to have an impact on the ice, all before people start arriving for worship. With that in mind, we are looking for a few able-bodied volunteers who are willing to come to church early on Sunday mornings when fresh snow has fallen to help clear the walkways, including the steps leading up to the front doors.

If we are unable to find enough volunteers, we will have to prioritize snow removal and focus our efforts on clearing the parking lot and the more frequently used entrances at Sulanke Commons and the north side of Cartwright Hall. That means when there is fresh snow on Sunday morning, the southeast entrance to the Sanctuary (red double doors) will be blocked off, and a sign will be posted directing those arriving to use the Sulanke Commons doors.

If you would like to help out with this endeavor, please contact Stefanie in the church office at (765) 282-5969, or by email to hccspetty@gmail.com.

Preschool

“At this season of giving thanks and anticipation of the coming of the Christ Child, I would like to thank each and every one of you for allowing me to serve as your Preschool Director. It is a blessing to be part of such tradition here at Hazelwood, and to see the many families that return year after year for quality education for their preschoolers.

We are all called to be the hands and feet of Jesus, and I believe that is exactly what we are striving for at Hazelwood Christian Preschool! Jesus is at work here at Hazelwood each and every day as the children learn and grow in the love of Jesus! Thanks to each one of the teachers and assistants for loving these precious children and the families we serve. God has chosen you specially for a very important role, to share the good news of Jesus Christ!”

~Angela Lopez
Preschool Director

Thank you

Thank you to all of those who have so generously donated their time, supplies, financial support, and most of all your prayers. It is because of you that our preschool ministry has grown so much this year. We are eternally grateful for your love of this ministry.

YOUTH CHRISTMAS PARTY & OVERNIGHT

Plans are well underway for our annual Youth Christmas Party and Overnight on Friday, January 5. We'll jump-start the night with a trip to the Sky Zone. When we return to the church, we'll have a gift exchange, watch movies, play games, and so much more! Don't forget to invite a friend or two—the more the merrier!

RSVP by Sunday, December 31 by email or text to Rev. James so we can plan for the rides and reservations for Sky Zone... and have enough snacks to last the night!!

YOUTH SPONSORS

I want to thank our dedicated Youth Sponsors who have helped me over this past year with Youth activities, All-Youth Fellowships, bible studies, fundraisers, and the Youth Summer Missions Projects. Mariangella Glaze, Andy Rees, and Wendy Rees have been our long-time Youth Sponsors, helping in all areas of youth ministry, and their help is invaluable to me and to the success of the Youth Ministry.

As we move into 2018, I want to invite any in our congregation who may have a desire to serve as a Youth Sponsor to contact me. As our Youth Ministry grows, it takes many hands and many minds to plan, coordinate, and implement our many activities.

Our youth are the future of the church. What better way to shape that future for the better than to invest our time today!

~James Petty
