PART V

CERTIFICATION:

The information presented in this application and in all attachments is true and correct. I understand that the value of my scholarship is based on the cost of attendance at the college I attend and the amount of other scholarships and grants I receive. I further understand that if I change my college choice after the scholarship award has been determined, it could result in a change in the dollar amount of the scholarship award. I will inform the scholarship committee of any changes in my status.
